

Burma Human Rights Day Benefit

Is real change taking place in Burma and what can you do to help?

Dinner, Speakers, Film, Music & Cultural Performances!

Saturday March 9, 6pm-10pm
Oakland Asian Cultural Center
388 9th Street, #290, Oakland, CA

After five decades of oppression and military rule, there have been some signs of change toward reforms. Come share the experts' real change has begun or if it is just an illusion.

Featured Film and Director:

Film "Burma - A Human Tragedy" to be followed by panel discussion and Q&A with speakers and panelists who recently visited Burma on the challenges, opportunities and new ways to help.

Speakers and Panelists:

Larry Diamond Global democracy expert from the Stanford University /
"Burma in the Context of Global Democratization"

Min Zin Freelance journalist and former student activist /
"Burma at a Crossroads: Challenges and Opportunities"

Nyunt Than Co-founder & chair of Burmese American Democratic Alliance /
"Changing Burma and New Ways to Help"

Come enjoy the taste of Burmese food and culture while helping the people!

Suggested donation $20 and up, sliding scale
(To Benefit BADA and its work on Burma)

www.badasf.org; 415 722 2907; 510 485 3751

Organized by Burmese American Democratic Alliance (BADA), Co-sponsored by Oakland Asian Cultural Center (OACC), Jelly Bean Films & Distribution, Clear View Project, A Wishper To A Roar Film, and other organizations.